

Doughnut Report

In Reporters Club, we tested 4 different types of doughnuts from 3 major supermarkets:

- ✚ Asda's Blackcurrant jam
- ✚ Asda's Strawberry jam
- ✚ Tesco's sprinkles
- ✚ Sainsbury's glazed.

We each tested a quarter of every doughnut, and with our own opinions, we made a report.

In my own opinion, Asda's blackcurrant jam leaves a bitter taste in your mouth. Although it seemed to win as a favourite out of our collective vote.

On the other hand, Asda's strawberry jam was my favourite. It was not bitter like the blackcurrant jam, also from Asda, but sweet and enjoyable. This came 2nd favourite in our collective vote.

Tesco and Sainsbury's doughnuts were quite enjoyable too, but both had the same problem. Sainsbury's glazed were not very popular, in our vote. Although, it was quite nice, people who are not into very sweet things would not enjoy it as much. It was the same with the Tesco's sprinkles. Little kids get attracted by the sprinkles and normally love them, but they were not as popular as Asda doughnuts in our vote. They are very sweet and would not be popular with people who don't like sweetness that much.
