

Adverb Poem

Slowly

Slowly the tide creeps up the sand,
Slowly the shadows cross the land.
Slowly the cart- horse pulls his mile,
Slowly the old man mounts his stile.

Slowly the hands move round the clock,
Slowly the dew dries on the docks.
Slow is the snail- but slowest of all
The green moss that spreads on the old brick wall.

By James Reeves

Writing task:

Try and write a similar poem. Either choose an adverb yourself or use one from this list: Quietly, Gently, Softly, Lightly, Swiftly, Brightly, Loudly.

Before you begin, collect your ideas by drawing a spider diagram with your adverb as the spider's oval body. As you think of your ideas, write them down as one of your spider's leg.

Here are some ideas to help you get you started:

