

1. Blackbeard found 17 gold coins on Monday, 13 on Tuesday and another 11 on Wednesday. How many gold coins has he now?

2. The pirates had 15 fish and they ate 6 of them. How many were left?

3. The pirates had 22 swords but they dropped 13 of them into the sea. How many did they have left?

4. On Saturday, the pirates went to sea. It would take them another six days before they reached land. What day would they reach land?

5. There were nineteen parrots on the pirate ship on Tuesday, but only 11 were there on Wednesday. How many had flown away?

6. On Sunday, Pirate Pete ate four fish. He ate the same amount on Monday and then the same amount on Tuesday as well. How many fish had he eaten in total?

7. Pirate Pat had 14 gold coins.
He found another 2 and then lost 3 of them. How many did he now have?

8. Eight pirates had a party. Each of them drank 2 jugs of grog. How many jugs were drunk all together?

9. There were seven pirates on the ship. Three of them had wooden legs. How many real legs were there in total?

10. Four pirates ate five eggs each. How many eggs is that in total?