

Oy saying /oi/

Trip to the Palace

twinkl

The magic map had taken Kit and Sam to London and they were standing outside Buckingham Palace.

“Wowee!” said Kit. “I cannot believe we are here!”

“But how do we get in?” asked Sam.

“I know!” said Kit. “We should ask the guards standing over there.”

Kit and Sam leapt with joy at the thought that soon they could be inside the palace.

London Buses

There are lots of buses that go past Buckingham Palace. They have letters in the windows. Can you blend the letters in the windows to read the words?

Adverts on a Billboard

Kit and Sam are looking at some adverts on billboards around the palace.
What are the adverts for? Match the correct billboard with the word.

Adverts on a Billboard

boy

destroy

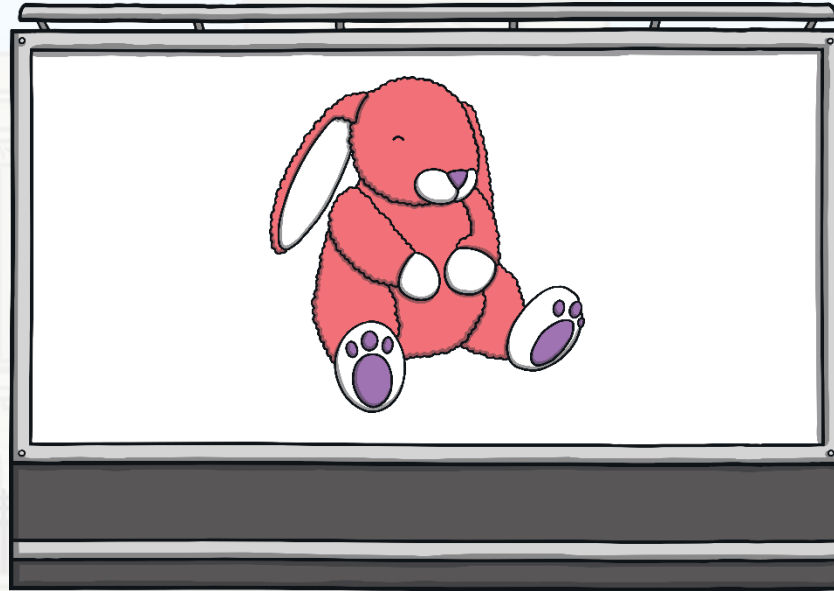

joy

toy

enjoy

annoy

Adverts on a Billboard

boy

destroy

joy

toy

enjoy

annoy

Adverts on a Billboard

boy

destroy

joy

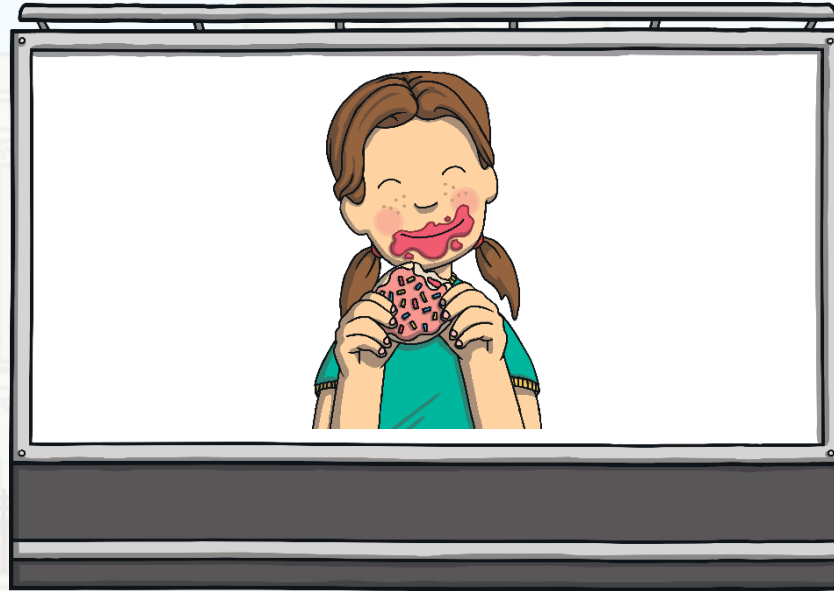

toy

enjoy

annoy

Adverts on a Billboard

boy

destroy

joy

toy

enjoy

annoy

Adverts on a Billboard

boy

destroy

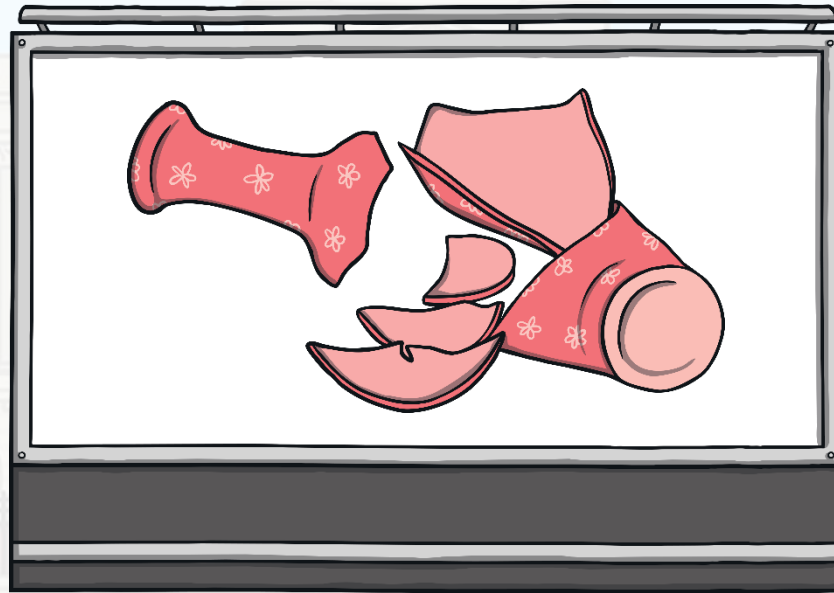

joy

toy

enjoy

annoy

Adverts on a Billboard

boy

destroy

joy

toy

enjoy

annoy

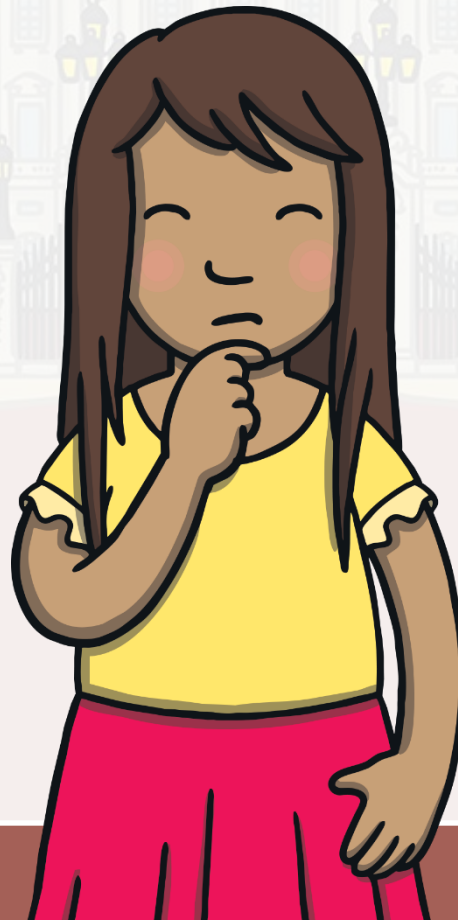

As they began to walk towards the guards, Sam saw something out of the corner of her eye. “I want to go and investigate,” she thought.

Sentence Time

What can Sam see? Read the sentence to find out.

I can see children enjoying playing in the garden.

Sound Buttons On/Off

Show

As they got closer to the guards, the queen herself came out of the Palace. “Roy! Troy!” she said, calling the guards. “Do let these fine youngsters in, please.”

Today, we have learnt...

oy
saying /oi/

