“We are here!” said an excited Kit to Sam.
Just then, in the distance Kit and Sam could see some very large reptiles following one in front.
“Are they...” Sam said, pointing in the direction of the creatures,
“...like Steg? Is that a stegosaurus?”

In the distance, they could see more than one stegosaurus. They were huge! They appeared to be about nine metres long and about three metres tall. Two rows of bony plates ran along their back and tail. The dinosaurs were busy munching on some leafy plants growing low to the ground.

Kit was so excited to see real-life dinosaurs just like Steg! He could not believe how big they were. He was amazed at how many leaves they were eating.

“Look at how quickly they are eating those leaves!” exclaimed Kit.

Kit and Sam stood very still watching these great dinosaurs eat plants off of the ground. As the dinosaurs were slowly moving in the direction of Kit and Sam, Sam became worried.

Sam thought about what Kit had just said and felt relieved. She already knew that a stegosaurus was a herbivore but had got caught up in the moment.

“Phew!” sighed Sam, looking less worried.

“I think we should walk a bit further through the forest because we might see some more dinosaurs,” said Kit.
Kit and Sam started to walk. What will they see next?
