

There's no point denying it, Christmas is coming.

Let's all continue to stay safe and well in our bubbles and have a fantastic holiday to look forward to.

What are we up to?

- English - we are working really hard on our winter poetry anthologies, learning about and writing Japanese Haiku.
- In maths we are continuing to focus on multiplication and division paying close attention to reasoning and problem solving tasks.
- In PSHE, we have been celebrating difference and following on from Anti Bullying Week, looking at how we identify bullying and the steps we take to ensure it doesn't happen.
- In Topic, we are looking at Anglo Saxon art and clothing.

Christmas Concert Clothes.

Filming to take place on Thursday 3rd December.

Children to come in school uniform but can wear a Christmas jumper or school jumper and tinsel and a Christmas hat/head wear.

spellzone
The online English spelling resource

Spelling Rule

Words with a soft 'c' spelt with 'ce'

s spelled c before e, i and y.

These are all common exception words and MUST be learnt. There will be a test shortly.

Word list in Home/ School diaries.

<https://www.spellzone.com/>

This is now a weekly homework.

We are aware that some children are reluctant to go on to Rock Stars. However, it is essential that ALL students log at least 3 times in a week because there is a personalised programme set up for each child.

Home Learning: We are currently rehearsing for our Christmas KS2 concert.

Parrots need to learn their lines for The 12 Days of Christmas (Parrot version).

Macaws need to listen to their chosen song - Driving Home for Christmas so that they will know when they need to hold up their signs.